SCHMITT MARINE PROMOTES JOE BISKER

Schmitt Marine, manufacturer of premium marine steering wheels, horns, wipers and related accessories for OEM and aftermarket, has promoted Joe Bisker to the position of operations manager. Tim Schmitt, president, made the announcement.

In his new role, Bisker oversees customer forecasting, purchasing and production, after having served as Schmitt Marine's warehouse manager for nearly two years. Prior, he was the manager of warehouse operations and facilities for A&S Kinard, a logistics company.

"We're pleased that Joe is stepping into the position of operations manager," said Schmitt. "He's an integral part of our team and we're confident he will succeed."

For over 60 years, Schmitt Marine has been a leader in manufacturing premium stock and semi-custom marine components and accessories through its product brands Schmitt Steering Wheels and Ongaro Marine. It has a robust global network of dealers and distributors.
