CUSTOM BOAT BUCKETS FOR OEMS, MANUFACTURERS & EVENTS

Giving away swag is a great way for companies to promote their brand and solidify customer relationships. But there are only so many beer koozies a boater needs. That's when Shurhold and its Custom Printed Buckets save the day. In runs as low as 36 units, the company can deliver full-color custom-branded buckets that not only turn heads but will remain in use for years. Examples will be on display at IBEX, October 1-3, Tampa, Florida, booth 1-701.

Made in the USA, a Custom Printed Bucket starts as a black or white five-gallon Shurhold World's Best Rope Handle Bucket. Thicker and sturdier than an ordinary plastic pail, it features a soft and comfortable 3/4" braided nylon black or blue rope handle. Other cordage colors are available by special order.

Shurhold then heat-fuses full-color customer-supplied artwork onto the bucket. The durable high-resolution graphic wraps a full 315° around the circumference to stand out at any angle. For companies with limited graphic design resources, Shurhold is ready to assist with optional creative services.

Prices for the Shurhold Custom Printed Bucket start at $15.95, depending on quantity. A first-time run is $30; there is no charge for future runs with unchanged artwork. More information is at www.bit.ly/CustomBucket.
